

Our Lady of Guadalupe - Study Guide

Diving Deeper:

Why do you think Our Lady appeared to a humble man, without any connections, privileges, or influence? What does this teach you? Why do you think God reveals himself to the meek and humble?

In what ways could you become an evangelizer in your daily life? How could you contribute to the beginning of someone's conversion path?

What traits would you like to imitate from St. Juan Diego? What virtues would you like to imitate from Our Lady of Guadalupe? How can a lack of virtue cause someone to treat people in the wrong way?

Activity

Classroom Activity

The group leader, together with each of the members, read about the different discoveries of the Tilma. Together they reflect on the indestructibility of the Tilma and the beautiful miracle it reveals. You can use one of the resources provided on this page.

Everyday Life Activity

Write down the words of comfort from Our Lady of Guadalupe that invite you not to fear anything, knowing that your mother in heaven is watching over you. "Am I not here, I, who am your Mother". Then, post it in a visible place for you to read it in times of fear or tribulation.
